

3-6 Pathology –integrated with Surgery

Part 1

Is the tumor a cancer?

If it is a cancer then is it primary or rather a metastasis from somewhere else?
Review of diagnostic dilemmas and possible sources of errors. Examples of common problems in various organs. Intraoperative consultation – when is it helpful and what can it provide?

whole class January 31 (Thursday) - lecture
8.00-9.30 , S1, CDK ul. Łazarza 16

- Katarzyna Milian –Ciesielska

Pathology report – guide to comprehension

Part 2

The role of the pathologist in the diagnosis of breast cancer -principles of correlation of pathological findings with breast imaging and standards in pathology reporting of breast cancer

- Katarzyna Milian –Ciesielska - 4 hrs

-Łukasz Chmura

3) Colorectal cancer- elements of protocol for the examination of specimens from patients with primary carcinoma of the colon and rectum

- Katarzyna Milian –Ciesielska - 4 hrs

-Łukasz Chmura

gr 1 March 15 (Friday) 11.00-14.00, S2, CDK, ul. Łazarza 16- part 2
March 22 (Friday) 11.00-14.00, S2 CDK, ul. Łazarza 16- part 3

gr 2 April 5 (Friday) 11.00-14.00, S2 CDK, ul. Łazarza 16- part 2
April 12 (Friday) 11.00-14.00, S2, CDK, ul. Łazarza 16- part 3

gr 3 February 22 (Friday) 11.00-14.00, S2, CDK, ul. Łazarza 16- part 2
March 1 (Friday) 11.00-14.00, S2, CDK, ul. Łazarza 16- part 3

Part 2 and 3 will include a lecture and a visit to lab.